

2023-2024 Diversity Abroad Communities of Practice Application

The below information is for reference purposes only to help applicants prepare their applications. All applications must be submitted via the online application form by June 2, 2023.

Diversity Abroad invites professionals interested in issues of access, inclusion, diversity, and equity in global education to apply to join our Diversity in Global Education Communities of Practice. Participants provide critical guidance and support to Diversity Abroad initiatives, and contribute to the development of new and valuable resources.

Please complete the form below to be considered for openings on the 2023-2024 Communities of Practice. The application deadline is June 2, 2023.

Please note, you do not have to be a Diversity Abroad member to apply for a community of practice but must be a member if offered a position to serve.

Community of Practice Leadership

Diversity Abroad will identify a Chair for each community of practice. The Chair will provide leadership on content development, identifying emerging themes, and maintaining deadlines. Each community of practice will also include a Diversity Abroad Staff Liaison to assist in clarifying project plans and to provide logistical assistance as needed. Potential Chairs will be asked to consider other “competing” obligations that may impact their ability to lead the community of practice before accepting the Chair invitation.

Please note, there is not a significant amount of additional time that would need to be allotted if chosen to serve as a Community of Practice Chair.

- 9. Would you like to be considered for a Chair role in this community of practice?
- 10. Please explain how you could contribute to addressing issues of access, inclusion, diversity and equity in global education.
- 11. Briefly describe the experience you have related to the task force theme you have selected.
